

CHARTER OF THE STANLY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ and for the furtherance of His Gospel, we, the people of the Stanly Baptist Association do hereby adopt the following Charter and Bylaws.

This Association is Southern Baptist and insofar as is practical, it will cooperate with and support the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE I: NAME

This body shall be known as the Stanly Baptist Association (referred to as the Association).

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE and MISSION

Stanly Baptist Association exists to glorify Jesus Christ by assisting local churches to fulfill their unique, God-given mission. As a network of churches, our mission is to connect churches in mission and ministry to advance the Gospel from Stanly County to the ends of the earth.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

The Association's membership shall consist of affiliated churches, which have freely entered into a relationship of cooperative support and fellowship. As a self-determining body, the Association determines its own membership, purposes, and processes, but claims no authority over any local church.

Section 1. Conditions of Affiliation

A. The Association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this Association. Member churches shall maintain scriptural integrity and doctrinal positions and practices consistent with one of the Baptist Faith and Messages.

B. A cooperating church shall be one that supports the ministry and mission of the Association through annual financial gifts and by completing the Annual Congregation Profile.

CHARTER OF THE MONTGOMERY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ and for the furtherance of His Gospel, we, the people of the Montgomery Baptist Association do hereby adopt the following Charter and Bylaws.

This Association is Southern Baptist and insofar as is practical, it will cooperate with and support the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE I: NAME

This body shall be known as the Montgomery Baptist Association (referred to as the Association).

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE and MISSION

Montgomery Baptist Association exists to glorify Jesus Christ by assisting local churches to fulfill their unique, God-given mission. As a network of churches, our mission is to connect churches in mission and ministry to advance the Gospel from Montgomery County to the ends of the earth.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

The Association's membership shall consist of affiliated churches, which have freely entered into a relationship of cooperative support and fellowship. As a self-determining body, the Association determines its own membership, purposes, and processes, but claims no authority over any local church.

Section 1. Conditions of Affiliation

A. The Association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this Association. Member churches shall maintain scriptural integrity and doctrinal positions and practices consistent with one of the Baptist Faith and Messages.

B. A cooperating church shall be one that supports the ministry and mission of the Association through annual financial gifts and by completing the Annual Congregation Profile.

PROPOSED

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION FOR THE STANLY-MONTGOMERY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ and for the furtherance of His Gospel, we, the people of the Stanly-Montgomery Baptist Association do hereby adopt the following Articles and Bylaws.

This Association is Southern Baptist and insofar as is practical, it will cooperate with and support the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE I: NAME

This body shall be known as the Stanly-Montgomery Baptist Association (referred to as the Association).

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE AND MISSION

Stanly-Montgomery Baptist Association exists to glorify Jesus Christ by assisting local churches to fulfill their unique, God-given mission. As a network of churches, our mission is to connect churches in mission and ministry to advance the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

The Association's membership shall consist of affiliated churches, which have freely entered into a relationship of cooperative support and fellowship. As a self-determining body, the Association determines its own membership, purposes, and processes, but claims no authority over any local church.

Section 1. Conditions of Affiliation

A. The Association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area served by this Association. Member churches shall maintain scriptural integrity and doctrinal positions and practices consistent with one of the Baptist Faith and Messages.

B. A cooperating church shall be one that supports the ministry and mission of the Association through annual financial gifts and by completing the Annual Congregation Profile.

C. The New Testament shall be accepted as the sole guide in matters of doctrine and practice using "The Baptist Faith and Message" (2000) as a guide for doctrinal and ecclesiological interpretation.

Section 2. Receiving Affiliated Churches into Membership.

A. Any church seeking admission to the membership shall petition in writing at least thirty days prior to a regularly scheduled session of the Association.

B. If the Association accepts the church by a 2/3 majority vote, it shall be admitted to watchcare for a minimum of one year. During that period, the petitioning church shall meet the following requirements:

1. shall send non-voting messengers to attend the sessions of the Association.
2. submit the following reports quarterly:
 - a. enrollment and attendance,
 - b. monetary receipts and disbursements

C. The petitioning church may be presented for membership in a regularly scheduled session of the Association once the requirements are met. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required for acceptance of full membership status. The Association may, alternatively, vote to continue the watch care status for a specified period of time. Should the motion fail to receive a two-thirds approval, the church's relationship to the Association shall be severed .

Section 3. Dismissal of Member Churches: Any church whose practices or doctrines are contrary to those in New Testament may disqualify themselves from membership. The officers of the Association should first meet with the pastor and/or leaders of the member church in question to clarify the issues at hand. Should the cause of dismissal remain, the associational officers then shall bring these findings to the Association. The church in question must also be allowed opportunity to respond to the concerns before the voting body. The associational officers alone may bring a motion of dismissal.

Section 4. Withdrawal of Affiliated Churches Any affiliated or watch care church may withdraw from affiliation by written notice from the pastor or clerk of that church, after an appropriate church vote.

Section 2. Receiving Affiliated Churches into Membership.

A. Any church seeking admission to the membership shall petition in writing at least thirty days prior to a regularly scheduled session of the Association.

B. If the Association accepts the church by a 2/3 majority vote, then shall be admitted to watchcare for a minimum of one year. During that period, the petitioning church shall meet the following requirements:

1. shall send non-voting representatives to attend the meetings of the Association.
2. submit the following reports quarterly:
 - a. enrollment and attendance,
 - b. monetary receipts and disbursements

C. The petitioning church will be presented to any regularly scheduled meeting of the Association once the requirements are met. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required for acceptance of full membership status. The Association may, alternatively, vote to continue the watch care status for a specified period of time. Should the motion fail to receive a two-thirds approval, the church's relationship to the Association shall be severed.

Section 3. Dismissal of Member Churches: Any church whose practices or doctrines are contrary to those in New Testament may disqualify themselves from membership. The officers of the Association should first meet with the pastor and/or leaders of the member church in question to clarify the issues at hand. Should the cause of dismissal remain, the associational officers then shall bring these findings to the Association. The church in question must also be allowed opportunity to respond to the concerns before the voting body. The associational officers alone may bring a motion of dismissal.

Section 4. Withdrawal of Affiliated Churches Any affiliated or watch care church may withdraw from affiliation by written notice from the pastor or clerk of that church, after an appropriate church vote.

Section 2. Receiving Affiliated Churches into Membership.

A. Any church seeking admission to the membership shall petition in writing at least thirty days prior to a regularly scheduled session of the Association.

B. If the Association accepts the church by a 2/3 majority vote, it shall be admitted to watchcare for a minimum of one year. During that period, the petitioning church shall meet the following requirements:

1. shall send non-voting messengers to attend the sessions of the Association.
2. submit the following reports quarterly:
 - a. enrollment and attendance,
 - b. monetary receipts and disbursements.

C. The petitioning church may be presented in a regularly scheduled session of the Association once the requirements are met. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required for acceptance of full membership status. The Association may, alternatively, vote to continue the watch care status for a specified period of time. Should the motion fail to receive a two-thirds approval, the church's relationship to the Association shall be severed.

Section 3. Dismissal of Member Churches: Any church whose practices or doctrines are contrary to those in New Testament may disqualify themselves from membership. The officers of the Association should first meet with the pastor and/or leaders of the member church in question to clarify the issues at hand. Should the cause of dismissal remain, the associational officers then shall bring these findings to the Administrative Team. The church in question must also be allowed opportunity to respond to the concerns before the voting body. The associational officers alone may bring a motion of dismissal.

Section 4. Withdrawal of Affiliated Churches Any affiliated or watch care church may withdraw from affiliation by written notice from the pastor or clerk of that church, after an appropriate church vote.

ARTICLE IV: GOVERNANCE

The government of this Association shall be vested in the affiliated churches acting in regularly scheduled or special called sessions as set forth in the Bylaws. Associational Officers shall otherwise carry out the business of the Association, and shall have the powers of a Board of Directors, subject to the limitations set forth in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE V: AMENDMENTS

This Charter may be amended by a written motion presented at a regularly scheduled meeting approved by a two-thirds vote. A minimum of 30 day written notice of proposed changes to this Charter shall be given to the churches.

ARTICLE VI: DISSOLUTION

Should the Association voluntarily choose to dissolve, it is directed by state law to follow the guidelines below:

1. The Board of Directors drafts a resolution recommending that the Association be dissolved and directing that the question of dissolution be submitted to its membership. This will include how remaining assets will be distributed to religious non-profit, a 501(c)(3) organizations, once all liabilities are satisfied.
2. All members are notified in writing that the question of dissolution will be discussed at an annual or called session.
3. A resolution to dissolve is adopted if it receives at least two-thirds approval;
4. Notice of the dissolution is mailed to all creditors as well as the North Carolina Secretary of State and the Internal Revenue Service.
5. Pay all corporate liabilities. Any assets remaining after payment of liabilities are transferred to the organization or organizations of like faith and mission, named in the motion of dissolution

ARTICLE IV: GOVERNANCE

The government of this Association shall be vested in the affiliated churches acting in regularly scheduled or special called sessions and the elected officers as set forth in the Bylaws.

The Associational Officers shall otherwise carry out the business of the Association, and shall have the powers of a Board of Directors, subject however to the limitations set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE V: AMENDMENTS

This Charter may be amended a motion presented in writing at a regularly scheduled meeting and approved by a two-thirds vote of a subsequent meeting (regularly scheduled or called for this purpose).

ARTICLE VI: DISSOLUTION

Should the Association voluntarily choose to dissolve, it is directed by state law to follow the guidelines below:

1. The Board of Directors drafts a resolution recommending that the Association be dissolved and directing that the question of dissolution be submitted to its membership. This will include how remaining assets will be distributed to religious non-profit, a 501(c)(3) organizations, once all liabilities are satisfied.
2. All members are notified in writing that the question of dissolution will be discussed at an annual or called session.
3. A resolution to dissolve is adopted if it receives at least two-thirds approval.
4. Notice of the dissolution is mailed to all creditors as well as the North Carolina Secretary of State and the Internal Revenue Service.
5. Pay all corporate liabilities. Any assets remaining after payment of liabilities are transferred to the organization or organizations of like faith and mission, named in the motion of dissolution.

ARTICLE IV: GOVERNANCE

The government of this Association shall be vested in the affiliated churches acting in regularly scheduled or special called sessions and the elected officers as set forth in the Bylaws.

The Associational Officers shall otherwise carry out the business of the Association, and shall have the powers of a Board of Directors, subject however to the limitations set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE V: AMENDMENTS

These Articles may be amended a written motion presented at a regularly scheduled meeting and approved by a two-thirds vote of a subsequent meeting (regularly scheduled or called for this purpose).

ARTICLE VI: DISSOLUTION

Should the Association voluntarily choose to dissolve, it is directed by state law to follow the guidelines below:

- 1. The Board of Directors drafts a resolution recommending that the Association be dissolved and directing that the question of dissolution be submitted to its membership. This will include how remaining assets will be distributed to religious non-profit, a501(c)(3) organizations, once all liabilities are satisfied.*
- 2. All members are notified in writing that the question of dissolution will be discussed at an annual or called session.*
- 3. A resolution to dissolve is adopted if it receives at least two-thirds approval;*
- 4. Notice of the dissolution is mailed to all creditors as well as the North Carolina Secretary of State and the Internal Revenue Service.*
- 5. Pay all corporate liabilities. Any assets remaining after payment of liabilities are transferred to the organization or organizations of like faith and mission, named in the motion of dissolution.*

BYLAWS FOR THE STANLY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I: MEETINGS

Section 1. Regularly Scheduled Meetings. The Association shall hold regular sessions for worship, reports, and business matters. The places and dates will be announced with at least thirty (30) days notice.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. Called sessions may be held with at least (30) thirty days notice, as the associational officers determine such need.

Section 3. Rules of Procedure. The procedures governing the business sessions of the Association shall be the general procedures set forth in the most recent edition of Roberts Rules of Order. Such rules, however, may be suspended by the Moderator when they conflict with a commitment to full discussion of the issues, or where their mechanical application would confuse or distort or unduly delay the process. Any diversion from ordinary procedures shall be by a vote of the body. Except as otherwise stated, actions of the Association shall be by majority vote on any matter properly before the body for action.

Section 4. Attendance. Sessions of the Association will be open to the public, unless a motion is presented and approved to limit the attendance to church messengers, associational officers and staff.

ARTICLE II: MESSENGERS

The affairs of this body, spiritual and temporal shall be governed by its affiliated churches, acting through their messengers, officers, and staff. Each church shall be allowed three messengers for the first 200 resident members or fraction thereof and one for each additional 100 resident members. A church may have a maximum of ten (10) messengers. Each church shall provide a list of those elected by the church as messengers. Messengers participate in associational meetings by bringing news from the churches and gain current information concerning the association, which they are to communicate with their church.

BYLAWS FOR THE MONTGOMERY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I: MEETINGS

Section 1. Regularly Scheduled Meetings. The Association shall hold regular sessions for worship, reports, and business matters. The places and dates will be announced with at least thirty (30) days notice.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. Called sessions may be held with at least (30) thirty days notice, as the associational officers determine such need.

Section 3. Rules of Procedure. The procedures governing the business sessions of the Association shall be the general procedures set forth in the most recent edition of Roberts Rules of Order. Such rules, however, may be suspended by the Moderator when they conflict with a commitment to full discussion of the issues, or where their mechanical application would confuse or distort or unduly delay the process. Any diversion from ordinary procedures shall be by a vote of the body. Except as otherwise stated, actions of the Association shall be by majority vote on any matter properly before the body for action.

Section 4. Attendance. Sessions of the Association will be open to the public, unless a motion is presented and approved to limit the attendance to church messengers, associational officers and staff.

ARTICLE II: MESSENGERS

The affairs of this body, spiritual and temporal shall be governed by its affiliated churches, acting through their messengers, officers, and staff. Each church shall be allowed three messengers for the first 200 resident members or fraction thereof and one for each additional 100 resident members. A church may have a maximum of ten (10) messengers. Each church shall notify the Association in writing of those duly elected by the church as messengers

BYLAWS FOR THE STANLY- MONTGOMERY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I: MEETINGS

Section 1. Regularly Scheduled Meetings. The Association shall hold regular sessions for worship, reports, and business matters. The places and dates will be announced with at least thirty (30) days notice.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. Called sessions may be held with at least (30) thirty days notice, as the associational officers determine such need.

Section 3. Rules of Procedure. The procedures governing the business sessions of the Association shall be the general procedures set forth in the most recent edition of Roberts Rules of Order. Such rules, however, may be suspended by the Moderator when they conflict with a commitment to full discussion of the issues, or where their mechanical application would confuse or distort or unduly delay the process. Any diversion from ordinary procedures shall be by a vote of the body. Except as otherwise stated, actions of the Association shall be by majority vote on any matter properly before the body for action.

Section 4. Attendance. Sessions of the Association will be open to the public, unless a motion is presented and approved to limit the attendance to church messengers, associational officers and staff.

ARTICLE II: MESSENGERS

The affairs of this body, spiritual and temporal shall be governed by its affiliated churches, acting through their messengers, officers, and staff. Each church shall be allowed three messengers for the first 200 resident members or fraction thereof and one for each additional 100 resident members. A church may have a maximum of ten (10) messengers. Each church shall notify the Association in writing of those duly elected by the church as messengers.

ARTICLE III: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors for the Association is composed of the General Officers of the Association: Moderator, as Chairman, the Vice-Moderator, as Vice-Chairman, and the Treasurer as Secretary/ Treasurer. The Board of Directors serve as the Trustees of the Association. In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject to the limitations stated in these Charter and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power, except as expressly authorized by the Association, to purchase, sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Charter or Bylaws, or to bind the Association to any contract.

ARTICLE IV: ASSOCIATIONAL OFFICERS AND STAFF

Section 1. Moderator. The Moderator presides over meetings of the Association and is elected annually. The Moderator shall serve for no more than two consecutive terms. The Moderator serves as President of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vice-Moderator. The Vice Moderator shall discharge the duties of the Moderator in his absence and serve as an associate in his presence. Should the office of Moderator become vacant, the Vice Moderator shall immediately accede to this office. Should the office of Vice-Moderator become vacant, a candidate should be elected at the next regularly scheduled session. The Vice-Moderator serves as the Vice-President of the Corporation.

Section 3. Treasurer. The Treasurer manages the finances of the Association in cooperation with the Associational Officers and Staff. He prepares reports quarterly or as requested by the Association. Associational Officers and staff are the only persons authorized to sign checks on associational accounts. The Treasurer serves as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Corporation.

Section 4. Missionary. The Missionary serves as (1) the lead mission strategist, (2) a consultant for church health, (3) a shepherd for church staff and (4) the chief operations director for the Association.

ARTICLE III: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors for the Association is composed of the General Officers of the Association: Moderator, as Chairman, the Vice-Moderator, as Vice-Chairman, and the Treasurer as Secretary/ Treasurer. The Board of Directors serve as the Trustees of the Association. In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject to the limitations stated in these Charter and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power, except as expressly authorized by the Association, to purchase, sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Charter or Bylaws, or to bind the Association to any contract.

ARTICLE IV: ASSOCIATIONAL OFFICERS AND STAFF

Section 1. Moderator. The Moderator presides over meetings of the Association and is elected annually. The Moderator shall serve for no more than two consecutive terms. The Moderator serves as President of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vice-Moderator. The Vice Moderator shall discharge the duties of the Moderator in his absence and serve as an associate in his presence. Should the office of Moderator become vacant, the Vice Moderator shall immediately accede to this office. Should the office of Vice-Moderator become vacant, a candidate should be elected at the next regularly scheduled session. The Vice-Moderator serves as the Vice-President of the Corporation.

Section 3. Treasurer. The Treasurer manages the finances of the Association in cooperation with the Associational Officers and Staff. He prepares reports quarterly or as requested by the Association. Associational Officers and staff are the only persons authorized to sign checks on associational accounts. The Treasurer serves as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Corporation.

Section 4. Missionary. The Missionary serves (1) as a mission strategist, (2) a consultant for church health, (3) a shepherd for church pastors, and (4) the operations director for the Association .

ARTICLE III: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors for the Association is composed of the General Officers of the Association: Moderator, as Chairman, the Vice-Moderator, as Vice-Chairman, and the Treasurer as Secretary/ Treasurer. The Board of Directors serve as the Trustees of the Association. In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject to the limitations stated in these Articles and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power, except as expressly authorized by the Association, to purchase, sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Articles or Bylaws, or to bind the Association to any contract.

ARTICLE IV: ASSOCIATIONAL OFFICERS AND STAFF

Section 1. Moderator. The Moderator presides over meetings of the Association and is elected annually. The Moderator shall serve for no more than two consecutive terms. The Moderator serves as President of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vice-Moderator. The Vice Moderator shall discharge the duties of the Moderator in his absence and serve as an associate in his presence. Should the office of Moderator become vacant, the Vice Moderator shall immediately accede to this office. Should the office of Vice-Moderator become vacant, a candidate should be elected at the next regularly scheduled session. The Vice-Moderator serves as the Vice-President of the Corporation.

Section 3. Treasurer. The Treasurer manages the finances of the Association in cooperation with the Associational Officers and Staff. He prepares reports quarterly or as requested by the Association. Associational Officers and staff are the only persons authorized to sign checks on associational accounts. The Treasurer serves as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Corporation.

Section 4. Lead Missionary. The Lead Missionary serves (1) as a mission strategist, (2) a consultant for church health, (3) a shepherd for church pastors, and (4) the operations director for the Association.

(The details for personnel are found in the Operations Manual. Montgomery does not use an approved Operations document)

1. The Missionary will lead to:
2. cast a God-sized vision for the Association;
3. assist churches and their pastors/leaders to discern and engage in God's plan;
4. coordinate & communicate with teams and Associational Teams
5. serve as an ambassador for Montgomery Baptists among community and denominational leaders
6. serve as chief executive officer of the Association.

The Associational Missionary is accountable to Associational Officers with the assistance of the Associational Support Team.

Suggested activities in fulfillment of the task:

1. Provide responsible leadership in the work of the Association through planning, correlating, implementing, and evaluating programs, services and ministries in cooperation with Associational leadership.
2. Serve as chief executive officer of the Association.
3. Serve as an ex-officio member of all Associational teams and groups.
4. Manage the office, business affairs, and staff of the Association as defined within the Bylaws.
5. Report to the Association in Session, as it relates to the planning, promoting and implementing of Associational, State, and Southern Baptist Convention work.

(The details for personnel are found in the Operations Manual.)

(The details for the missionary may be found in the Operations Manual. Montgomery does not use an approved Operations document)

6. Report to the Association in Session, as it relates to the planning, promoting and implementing of Associational, State, and Southern Baptist Convention work.
7. He shall make himself available, upon request, to work with and assist any church or pastor of the Association, as his schedule permits.
8. Help to start new work as needed.
9. Seek to maintain cooperative relationships with Baptist Associations, Baptist State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Miscellaneous Considerations:

1. He shall not consider serving any church as interim pastor and is required to consult the Associational Officers before serving any church more than six consecutive Sundays.
2. Outside Ministries: A maximum of four (4) weeks of revivals, World Missions Conferences, and other ministries shall be allowed outside the Association. Should unusual or special circumstances arise the Associational Officers may approve additional time at its discretion.
3. Conventions: He shall have the privilege of attending State and Southern Baptist Conventions, assemblies, and conferences pertaining to his particular program of work, with expenses paid by the Association to the amount provided by the budget.
4. Sick Leave: The responsibility lies within the Associational Officers to decide when sick leave is excessive, otherwise no accounting of individual sick days will be required.

5. Vacation: The Missionary shall receive two (2) weeks vacation per year for the first two years of service, after which a third week of vacation will be added up to seven years of service at which time a maximum of four weeks vacation per year will take effect.
6. Office Hours: He shall not be confined to the office during daytime hours but will be free to spend time in or out of the office according to his discretion in order to accomplish the goals and missions of the Association and by requests of pastors and/or members of Montgomery Baptist churches.

Section 5. Administrative Assistant. The Administrative Assistant serves (1) to facilitate communication among churches and church/community/denominational leaders, (2) to assist Associational Teams and the Missionary, and (3) to inform and equip church administrative assistants and secretaries

Section 5. Administrative Assistant. The Administrative Assistant serves (1) to facilitate communication among churches and church/community/denominational leaders, (2) to assist Associational Teams and the Missionary, and (3) to inform and equip church administrative assistants and secretaries.

1. assist with communication and coordination,
2. manage office operations,
3. support associational officers and team leaders,
4. serve to promote the association in public and church relations,
5. serve as secretary for the Association in Session and for the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and
6. serve as the Association's historian.

The Administrative Assistant will be accountable to the Association through the Missionary with the assistance of the Support Team.

Section 5. Administrative Assistant. The Administrative Assistant serves (1) to facilitate communication among churches and church/community/denominational leaders, (2) to assist Associational Teams and the Missionary, and (3) to inform and equip church administrative assistants and secretaries

Designated activities in fulfillment of the task

1. Assists churches with printing needs.
2. Maintains appropriate mailing lists for promoting the work of the Association.
3. Prepares items as the Associational Newsletter, Directory, Calendar of Activities, Book of Reports, and other Associational reports.
4. Maintains and orders sufficient office supplies.
5. Travels to such places as the Post Office and office supply businesses as needed.
6. Oversees the operation and maintenance of office equipment.
7. Maintains up-to-date files for the Association.

Miscellaneous Considerations:

1. Maintains posted office hours.
2. Receives two (2) weeks of vacation each year with full salary.
3. Salary recommended by the Resource Team and approved by the Association.

Associational Officers decide when sick leave becomes excessive.

Section 6. Dismissal. Any associational officer or staff may be removed by a two-thirds vote in any regular or called session. Associational Officers alone may bring a request for dismissal of Associational Staff. Dismissal initiated by the Association requires a ninety (90) day notice, except in cases of immoral or illegal conduct. In the case of immoral or illegal conduct, the Associational Officers may suspend staff until a motion is brought for a vote.

Section 7 Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy because of resignation, death or removal from office, the Associational Officers may appoint Interim Staff or Officers until the next regularly scheduled or special called session when the body can approve the appointment and conditions of appointment.

Section 6. Dismissal. Any officer or staff may be removed by a two-thirds vote in any regular or called session. Associational Officers alone may bring a request for dismissal of Associational Staff. Dismissal initiated by the Association requires a ninety (90) day notice, except in cases of immoral or illegal conduct. In the case of immoral or illegal conduct, the Associational Officers may suspend staff until a motion is brought for a vote.

Section 7 Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy because of resignation, death or removal from office, the Associational Officers may appoint Interim Staff or Officers until the next regularly scheduled or special called session when the body can approve the appointment and conditions of appointment.

Section 6. Dismissal. Any officer may be removed by a two-thirds vote in any regular or called session. Associational Officers alone may bring a request for dismissal of Associational Staff. Dismissal initiated by the Association requires a ninety (90) day notice, except in cases of immoral or illegal conduct. In the case of immoral or illegal conduct, the Associational Officers may suspend staff until a motion is brought for a vote.

Section 7 Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy because of resignation, death or removal from office, the Associational Officers may appoint Interim Staff or Officers until the next regularly scheduled or special called session when the body can approve the appointment and conditions of appointment.

a. Missionary Search Team. At such time that the Association is without a Missionary, the Moderator shall serve as a Chairman along with the Associational Officers and the Support Team, shall enlist the five (5) to seven (7) active members from associational churches to serve as a Missionary Search Team with no two (2) members from the same church. In addition, the Moderator shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Associational Missionary Search Team. The Search Team shall select its own Chairman from its membership, shall seek out a qualified Missionary and shall present the candidate to the Association for approval.

b. Calling a Missionary. Election shall require the affirmative vote of 3/4 majority of the messengers at the regularly scheduled or special called meeting.

c. Concluding the Services of a Missionary. The Missionary is to give a notice of no less than 30 days and no more than 90 days when concluding his service.

d. Additional Staff shall be presented to the Association in coordination with the Support Team at regularly scheduled session. A two-thirds majority is required for approval .

ARTICLE V: ASSOCIATIONAL TEAMS

The Association accomplishes its stated mission by way of a team structure. Teams are organized and dissolved by the Association in order to maximize effectiveness and focus. Teams are empowered by the Association to attend and accomplish stated tasks. They are responsible to know their assignment and to be equipped to carry it out. They may enlist additional team members in cooperation with the Missionary. Teams should communicate their plans, actions and changes with the Associational Staff and Officers regularly. The Administrative Assistant will keep a current roster of active teams and team members.

Each Team develops and manages its own team budget, annually submitting it for associational approval. Teams have the authority to disburse approved, budgeted monies to carry out their assignment. Further details of team assignments are located in the Operations Manual.

a. Missionary Search Team. At such time that the Association is without a Missionary, the Moderator shall serve as a Chairman along with the Associational Officers and the Support Team, shall enlist the five (5) to seven (7) active members of the Association to serve as an Missionary Search Team with no two (2) members from the same church. In addition, the Moderator shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Associational Missionary Search Team. The Search Team shall select its own Chairman from its membership and seek out a qualified Missionary. The team must be in unanimous agreement before presenting the candidate to the Association for approval.

b. Calling a Missionary. Election shall require the affirmative vote of 3/4 majority of the messengers at the regularly scheduled or special called meeting.

c. Concluding the Services of a Missionary. The Missionary is to give a notice of no less than 30 days and no more than 90 days when concluding his service.

d. Additional Staff shall be presented to the Association in coordination with the Support Team at regularly scheduled session. A two-thirds majority is required for approval.

ARTICLE V: ASSOCIATIONAL TEAMS

The Association accomplishes its stated mission by way of a team structure. Teams are organized and dissolved by the Association in order to maximize effectiveness and focus. Teams are empowered by the Association to attend and accomplish stated tasks. They are responsible to know their assignment and to be equipped to carry it out. Teams consist of at least three (3) members and may enlist additional team members in cooperation with the Missionary. Teams should communicate plans, actions and changes with the Associational Staff and Officers regularly. The Administrative Assistant will keep a current roster of active teams and team members, which may serve up to three (3) successive years on any team.

Each Team develops and manages its own team budget, annually submitting it for associational approval. Teams have the authority to disburse approved, budgeted monies to carry out their assignment.

a. Lead Missionary Search Team. At such time that the Association is without a Lead Missionary, the Moderator shall serve as a Chairman along with the Associational Officers and the Base Team, shall enlist the five (5) to seven (7) active members of the Association to serve as an Lead Missionary Search Team with no two (2) members from the same church. In addition, the Moderator shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Associational Lead Missionary Search Team. The Search Team shall select its own Chairman from its membership, shall seek out a qualified Lead Missionary, and shall present the name to the Association for approval.

b. Calling a Lead Missionary. Election shall require the affirmative vote of 3/4 majority of the messengers at the regularly scheduled or special called meeting.

c. Concluding the Services of a Lead Missionary. The Lead Missionary is to give a notice of no less than 30 days and no more than 90 days when concluding his service.

d. Additional Staff shall be presented to the Association in coordination with the Base Team at regularly scheduled session. A two-thirds majority is required for approval.

ARTICLE V: ASSOCIATIONAL TEAMS

The Association accomplishes its stated mission by way of a team structure. Teams are organized and dissolved by the Association in order to maximize effectiveness and focus. Teams are empowered by the Association to attend and accomplish stated tasks. They are responsible to know their assignment and to be equipped to carry it out. They may enlist additional team members in cooperation with the Lead Missionary. They should communicate plans, actions and changes with the Associational Staff and Officers regularly. The Administrative Assistant will keep a current roster of active teams and team members

Each Team develops and manages its own team budget, annually submitting it for associational approval. Teams have the authority to disburse approved, budgeted monies to carry out their assignment.

The following standing teams serve to support staff, leaders, resources and vision for the association:

Section 1. Support Team shall be composed of the Associational Officers, staff and one representative from each team. The Moderator shall preside over the Administrative Team. This team will support and serve all other teams in order to promote and administer the mission of the Association.

Section 2. Resource Teams manage the finances, properties, and volunteers of the Association

Section 3. Ministry Teams assist churches to make disciples and develop Christian leaders.

Section 4. Missions Teams assist churches to demonstrate and declare the Gospel in the world.

Section 5. Leadership Development Teams assist churches to connect and equip leaders.

Section 6. Additional Teams. Teams are formed or dissolved at the direction of the Support Team in order most effectively and efficiently accomplish the stated purposes and mission of the Association. Changes are recorded in the Operations Manual and reported in the regularly scheduled sessions of the Association.

ARTICLE VI: DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Types of Discipline. The Association may recommend the formal discipline of any member church by censure, suspension or revocation of membership for any conduct they deem prejudicial to the interests of the Association and the cause of Christ.

The following standing teams serve to accomplish essential support and management of people, resources, and vision for the association

Section 1. Support Team shall be composed of the Associational Officers, staff and one member from each associational team. The Moderator shall preside over the Support Team. This team will support and serve all other teams in order to promote and administer the mission of the Association

Section 2. Resource Team manages the finances, properties, and volunteers of the Association

Section 3. Ministry Team assists churches to make disciples and develop Christian leaders. This team consists of pastors with passion, training, and experience in ministry to provide opportunities to encourage and equip church leaders.

Section 4. Missions Team assists churches to demonstrate and declare the Gospel in the world. This team consists of Men's and Women's Missions leaders and pastors with passion and experience with mission projects.

Section 5. Leadership Development Team assists churches to connect and equip leaders. This team consists of pastors with passion, training, and experience in training church leaders.

Section 6. Additional Teams. Teams are formed or dissolved at the direction of the Support Team in order most effectively and efficiently accomplish the stated purposes and mission of the Association.

ARTICLE VI: DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Types of Discipline. The Association may recommend the formal discipline of any member church by censure, suspension or revocation of membership for any conduct they deem prejudicial to the interests of the Association and the cause of Christ.

The following standing teams serve to accomplish essential support and management of people, resources, and vision for the association. Refer to the organizational chart in the Operations Manual for team composition and assignments.

Section 1. Base Team shall be composed of the Associational Officers, staff and one member from each standing team. The Moderator shall preside over the Administrative Team. This team will support and serve all other teams in order to promote and administer the mission of the Association.

Section 2. Mobilization Team assists all teams in discovering and engaging volunteers to serve.

Section 3. Stewardship Team assists the Association monitoring the financial status, developing an annual budget, and implementing stewardship strategies.

Section 4. Ministry Team assists churches to make disciples and develop Christian leaders.

Section 5. Missions Team assists churches to demonstrate and declare the Gospel in the world.

Section 6. Additional Teams. In addition to the standing teams listed above, teams are formed or dissolved at the direction of the Base Team in order most effectively and efficiently accomplish the stated purposes and mission of the Association.

ARTICLE VI: DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Types of Discipline. The Association may recommend the formal discipline of any member church by censure, suspension or revocation of membership for any conduct they deem prejudicial to the interests of the Association and the cause of Christ.

Section 2. Procedure. All disciplinary proceedings and actions shall be undertaken pursuant to the biblical principles and process set forth in Matthew 18:15-17 in the spirit of commitment to confession, repentance, forgiveness and reconciliation. Private admonition, spiritual instruction and encouragement to faithfulness must precede any recommendation of formal Association action.

Section 3. Reasonable Efforts. No member church shall be disciplined, nor recommendation for such discipline forwarded to the other members, until the member shall have been notified, or bona fide effort made to notify, of such pending matter including information of the charges and an opportunity to appear before the Association in person and to forward information relevant to the matter.

Section 4. Removal from Membersip. Recommendations regarding discipline may be made at a regular or special business meeting with prior notice of the general subject matter and proposed recommendation being provided all the members. The member church against which action is proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard. A two-thirds vote shall be required to approve any recommendation of discipline.

ARTICLE VII: MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Gender References. Terms for gender such as he, she, etc. shall not be construed as binding on that particular gender unless otherwise indicated.

Section 2. Fiscal Year The Association shall operate on the calendar year for budget and leadership.

Section 3. Quorum. A quorum is required only of special called sessions. Quorum is satisfied when at least one messenger is present from thirty (30) percent of the total number of member churches.

Section 4. Voting. Voting shall be limited to Church Messengers and Associational Officers. No absentee ballots or voting by proxy shall be permitted.

Section 2. Procedure. All disciplinary proceedings and actions shall be undertaken pursuant to the biblical principles and process set forth in Matthew 18:15-17 in the spirit of commitment to confession, repentance, forgiveness and reconciliation. Private admonition, spiritual instruction and encouragement to faithfulness must precede any recommendation of formal Association action.

Section 3. Reasonable Efforts. No member church shall be disciplined, nor recommendation for such discipline forwarded to the other members, until the member shall have been notified, or bona fide effort made to notify, of such pending matter including information of the charges and an opportunity to appear before the Association in person and to forward information relevant to the matter.

Section 4. Removal from Membersip. Recommendations regarding discipline may be made at a regular or special business meeting with prior notice of the general subject matter and proposed recommendation being provided all the members. The member church against which action is proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard. A two-thirds vote shall be required to approve any recommendation of discipline.

ARTICLE VII: MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Gender References. Terms for gender such as he, she, etc. shall not be construed as binding on that particular gender unless otherwise indicated.

Section 2. Fiscal Year The Association year for budget and leadership begins October 1.

Section 3. Quorum. A quorum is required only of special called sessions. Quorum is satisfied when at least one messenger is present from thirty (30) percent of the total number of member churches.

Section 4. Voting. Voting shall be limited to Church Messengers and Associational Officers. No absentee ballots or voting by proxy shall be permitted.

Section 2. Procedure. All disciplinary proceedings and actions shall be undertaken pursuant to the biblical principles and process set forth in Matthew 18:15-17 in the spirit of commitment to confession, repentance, forgiveness and reconciliation. Private admonition, spiritual instruction and encouragement to faithfulness must precede any recommendation of formal Association action.

Section 3. Reasonable Efforts. No member church shall be disciplined, nor recommendation for such discipline forwarded to the other members, until the member shall have been notified, or bona fide effort made to notify, of such pending matter including information of the charges and an opportunity to appear before the Association in person and to forward information relevant to the matter.

Section 4. Removal from Membersip. Recommendations regarding discipline may be made at a regular or special business meeting with prior notice of the general subject matter and proposed recommendation being provided all the members. The member church against which action is proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard. A two-thirds vote shall be required to approve any recommendation of discipline.

ARTICLE VII: MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Gender References. Terms for gender such as he, she, etc. shall not be construed as binding on that particular gender unless otherwise indicated.

Section 2. Fiscal Year The Association shall operate on the calendar year for budget and leadership.

Section 3. Quorum. A quorum is required only of special called sessions. Quorum is satisfied when at least one messenger is present from thirty (30) percent of the total number of member churches.

Section 4. Voting. Voting shall be limited to Church Messengers and Associational Officers. No absentee ballots or voting by proxy shall be permitted.

Section 5. Special Procedures. All motions involving (1) with the purchase or sale of property, (2) changes in employment terms or salaries of Associational staff, (3) the affiliation of relationships by the Association, or (4) amendments to these bylaws must be communicated at least seven (7) days prior to the session, whether regularly scheduled or called for this purpose.

ARTICLE VIII: AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended by a written motion presented at a regularly scheduled meeting is approved by a two-thirds vote. A minimum of seven (7) day written notice of proposed changes shall be given to the churches.

Section 5. Special Procedures. All motions involving (1) with the purchase or sale of property, (2) changes in employment terms or salaries of Associational staff, (3) the affiliation of relationships by the Association, or (4) amendments to these bylaws must be communicated at least seven (7) days prior to the session, whether regularly scheduled or called for this purpose

ARTICLE VIII: AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended a written motion presented at any regularly scheduled session and approved by a two-thirds vote of a subsequent session (regularly scheduled or called for this purpose). A minimum of seven (7) day written notice of proposed changes shall be given to the churches

Section 4. Special Procedures. All motions involving (1) with the purchase or sale of property, (2) changes in employment terms or salaries of Associational staff, (3) the affiliation of relationships by the Association, or (4) amendments to these bylaws must be communicated at least seven (7) days prior to the session, whether regularly scheduled or called for this purpose.

ARTICLE VIII: AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended by a written motion presented at a regularly scheduled meeting is approved by a two-thirds vote. A minimum of seven day written notice of proposed changes shall be given to the churches.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART FOR THE STANLY-MONTGOMERY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ASSOCIATION IN SESSION

Church Messengers + Officers + Staff

MISSIONS TEAM

Church extension
Women's Missions
Men's Missions
Partnership Missions
Missions Development

MINISTRY TEAM

Church Strengthening
Prayer Ministry
Church Strengthening
Senior Adult Ministry
Family Ministry

LEADER DEV. TEAM

Leader Building
Minister's Conference
Music Ministries
Deacons Fellowship
Children's Ministries
Student Ministries
Uwharrie Missional Ctr. Advisory Council

RESOURCE TEAM

Stewardship Team
>Scholarship Team
>Legacy Team
Mobilization Team
Properties Team
Session Team

SUPPORT TEAM

SBA Officers and Staff
Resource Team Representatives
Missions Team Representatives
Ministry Team Representatives
Leadership Development Team Representatives